MEET THE CHEF.

My name is Vasyl & I'm from Kiev, Ukraine. My love affair with pizza began years ago in my homeland when the Italian travelers would often come & set up their woodburning ovens in small cafés to bake pizza pies, just as they had for hundreds of years. I was so taken by these "Pizzaioli," the master pizza makers, that I started training with them. Eventually I traveled to Italy to work in one of their oldest & busiest pizzerias.

While there, I too was granted the title of Pizzaiolo.

As a chef working his way to this country, I passed through & cooked in many other countries, using the customs of many different cultures. My love of food led me here, to the United States of America, with all the resources & ability to import the finest ingredients & equipment. It was my destiny, my passion, to make fresh, wholesome pizza... the kind I would feed to my loved ones.

So, here I am, offering a fusion of traditional Italian pizza with secrets picked up from a life of travel. I am crazy about pizza, & you can be, too.

Thank you for letting me share with you my passion for the pizza!

Vasyl, Intercontinental Pizzaiolo

PS: Remember, the pizza I make is not Italian, nor American, but is my vision of cooking. I'm open to your suggestions & hope you enjoy my creations.

LOCAL. ORGANIC.

Transfer is a member of Braise RSA (Restaurant Supported Agriculture) & makes every effort to use local organic produce when in season. We're also proud to contribute our vegetable & fruit scraps, as well as coffee grounds & spent tea leaves, to the Milwaukee Community Compost Network, helping to create soil for Milwaukee's urban farming community.

Advisory: The consumption of raw or undercooked food such as meat, poultry, fish, shellfish, or eggs which contain harmful bacteria may cause serious illness.
